

Registration for race series has started / Premiere: A fourth stop and an e-mtb classification

Scott Enduro Series grows

The races at the BIKE Festivals in Riva, Willingen and Leogang have been set in the Scott Enduro Series for years, in 2020 Rabenberg (GER) joins them for a fourth series stop. The kick-off will be at the FSA BIKE Festival Garda Trentino (3 May). Further highlights: The Continental BIKE Festival Willingen (17 May) will be once more the setting for the German Enduro Championship and Leogang will offer a special classification for e-mountain bikers

Bielefeld, 14 February 2020. The registration for all races of the Scott Enduro Series is open. To kick off the season at the FSA BIKE Festival Garda Trentino (1-3 May), Enduro enthusiasts can look forward to a new track in the mtb Eldorado Lake Garda on the Sunday of the festival. The start and finish of the race will this time be directly at the festival site in Riva.

The second stop of the Scott Enduro Series is the Continental BIKE Festival Willingen (15-17 May). On the 17 May the best Enduro riders will be determined in the Sauerland region, on a track with completely new sections that have never been part of this race before. In addition, and for the third time, the BIKE Festival will also host the German Enduro Championship.

Third and new stop of the race series is at the single trail park "Trailcenter" in Rabenberg in the Erzgebirge on 5 September. The last stop and thus the final of the series will take place at the Continental BIKE Festival in Leogang (11-13 September) on 13 September, where the overall winners will be awarded, too. In Willingen and Leogang the race will also be a qualifying for the Enduro World Series, so anyone wishing to qualify can collect valuable points here.
